8. OUR PRACTICES RELATING TO SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION

We only collect, use, or disclose Sensitive Personal Information as necessary to perform services or provide products you would reasonably expect when you request products or services from us, for fraud prevention and information security, to perform services such as maintaining and servicing accounts, to ensure the physical safety of our employees and clients, or as otherwise authorized by the CCPA and its implementing regulations. We do not use or disclose Sensitive Personal Information for any purpose that enables an individual to exercise a right to limit our use or disclosure of Sensitive Personal Information under California law. Should we change our practice, we will notify you and provide you with the right to limit.

9. RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The length of time that we retain each category of Personal Information depends on the following criteria: (1) the length of time we need the Personal Information in order to accomplish the purposes for which it is collected, used, or disclosed; (2) our corporate standards for record retention; (3) the length of time we are required to retain Personal Information to comply with applicable federal and state laws and regulations; and (4) whether the Personal Information is subject to a dispute, investigation, or legal hold.

10. YOUR CCPA REQUEST RIGHTS

The CCPA gives you the right to make the following requests pertaining to your Personal Information:

Request to Know what Personal Information We Have Collected

- Request to Know: You have the right to know what Personal Information we have collected about you.
Extended Look-back: You may request information collected by the Bank back to January 1, 2022 or up to 7 years of information, whichever is sooner.

11. REQUEST TO DELETE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to request that we delete Personal Information we have collected from you, subject to certain exceptions. For example, we may deny your request if we need your Personal Information to provide you with a product or service, comply with federal or state laws or regulations, detect security incidents, for fraud prevention, or for certain other internal uses allowed by the CCPA.

12. REQUEST THAT WE CORRECT INACCURATE PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to request that we correct inaccurate Personal Information that we maintain about you. We may require you to submit documentation to substantiate your request if we believe our records are accurate and you did not produce documentation with your request. We will accept, review, and consider any documentation you provide in connection with your request to correct, and will only use and maintain your documentation for the purpose of processing and responding to your request and complying with CCPA recordkeeping requirements. We may deny your request if we determine that the contested Personal Information is more likely than not accurate based on all of the information available to us.

13. HOW TO MAKE CCPA REQUESTS

You may make a Request to Know, Correct, or Delete by submitting the request using the Contact Us Form, emailing your request to privacy@oneunited.com, or by calling the OneUnited Bank Service Center at (877)-663-8648.

To protect your privacy and the security of your Personal Information, we will verify your identity prior to completing your request. We do this by matching information you provide to information we have on file. We may ask you to provide a valid government-issued photo identification, such as a driver's license, as part of the verification process. We may deny your request if we are unable to verify your identity.

14. REQUESTS SUBMITTED BY AUTHORIZED AGENTS

You may authorize an individual or business to submit a Request to Know, Correct, or Delete on your behalf. In order for us to process the request, we must have a written document, signed by you, giving your authorized agent permission to make the request on your behalf. In order to protect your Personal Information, we may also verify your identity or confirm that you gave the authorized agent permission to submit the request(s). Your authorized agent may make a request by following the instructions in the "How to Make CCPA Requests" paragraph, above.

15. OUR RESPONSE TO YOUR REQUESTS

We will provide you with confirmation of your request within ten (10) business days of the date the request is received. We will generally respond to your request within forty-five (45) calendar days of the date we received the request. In some cases, we may take up to another forty-five (45) calendar days to respond. If this occurs, we will notify you before the end of the first forty-five (45) day period and provide you with the reason(s) why we need additional time to complete your request.

If you submit a Request to Delete or Request to Correct, when we respond we will tell you whether or not we were able to complete your request, and if not, the reason. If we delete or correct your Personal Information, we will also instruct any service providers that maintain the information to delete or correct the information, as applicable.

Please note that the CCPA prohibits us from disclosing certain Personal Information, such as Social Security or driver's license numbers, account numbers, health or medical identification numbers, or confidential account information, such as a password or security questions and answers. When we respond to a Request to Know pertaining to such information, we will provide you with a description of the Personal Information we collected.

Your Personal Information may be subject to data privacy laws other than the CCPA. For example, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act regulates the privacy of consumer financial information that is collected when an individual obtains a bank product or service for personal, family, or household purposes. If we receive a Request to Know, Correct, or Delete that involves Personal Information that is subject to another privacy law, we may deny part or all of your request relating to that information as it is exempt from the CCPA. We will inform you of this in our response to your request.

16. OTHER CCPA RIGHTS

Right to Non-Discrimination for Exercising Your CCPA Rights.

You have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising your privacy rights under the CCPA. OneUnited Bank will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your CCPA rights.

The CCPA gives you the right to opt out of the sale and sharing of your Personal Information and Sensitive Personal Information. OneUnited Bank does not sell Personal Information or Sensitive Personal Information or share Sensitive Personal Information; however, we do share certain Personal Identifiers and Internet/Other Electronic Network Activity information collected by cookies, pixel tags, and similar mechanisms ("Tracking Technologies") to serve you with Targeted Interest-Based Advertising. You have the right to opt-out of Targeted Interest-Based Advertising and may do so by either (1) implementing an opt-out preference signal that complies with California law, such as the Global Privacy Control, on a supported web browser or browser extension, or (2) selecting your cookie preferences in the Privacy Preference Center settings menu or via the Cookie Settings link in the footer of the Website. If you implement the Global Privacy Control, or other opt-out preference signal that meets California legal requirements, the signal will be read when you first interact with our Website and you will immediately be opted out of sharing for Targeted Interest-Based Advertising. Please note that you will need to manage your cookie settings for each device and browser that you use to access the Online Services.

17. AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING TECHNOLOGY (ADMT)

If the Bank uses Automated Decision-Making Technology to make significant decisions concerning you, we provide the following:

- Pre-use Notice: We will inform you of the logic involved in the ADMT and your right to opt-out of such processing before it occurs.
- Right to Access Logic: Upon request, we will provide an explanation of the purpose of the ADMT, the processing method used, and the specific outcome or decision reached.
- Human Appeal: You have the right to appeal any decision made solely by ADMT through a human review process.

18. RIGHT TO LIMIT USE AND DISCLOSURE OF SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION

The CCPA gives you the right to request that we limit our use and disclosure of Sensitive Personal Information to the purposes detailed in the CCPA and its implementing regulations. For more detail, please refer to the section titled "Our Practices Relating to Sensitive Personal Information". We limit our use and disclosure of your Sensitive Personal Information to the allowed purposes set forth in the CCPA and its implementing regulations.

19. LIMIT THE USE OF MY SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION

- If we use your Sensitive Personal Information (SPI) for purposes other than those exempt under the CCPA (such as providing requested services or fraud prevention), you have the right to limit our use of that data.
- You may exercise this right by selecting Privacy - Remove Online Access and Data in the drop down on our Contact Us page (oneunited.com/contactus) on our website.

20. UPDATES TO THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

This Privacy Notice was last updated in June 2026. We reserve the right to make changes to both our Personal Information practices and this Privacy Notice at any time. Please return to this site frequently to determine if changes have been made. If we make significant changes to this Notice, we will place a message on the OneUnited Bank website informing you of the change.

21. FOR MORE INFORMATION
